

If you are a breast cancer patient under the age of thirty...

...the Kristy Lasch Miracle Foundation would like to help you.

There are hundreds of organizations out there that can help you and your loved ones cope with this devastating disease.

If you are under the age of thirty and are overwhelmed by the financial burdens of breast cancer, our organization might be able to help you. We offer financial assistance in various means to qualified applicants.

Click here for an application .